#1

14342 W. Golf Air Drive

Lee and Jane Jabs: This large garden showcases a variety of interesting trees and shrubs. Lee keeps an extensive journal of the bloom times of the plants in his garden. Annuals are mixed in with perennials to provide extra summer color and interest. Formecology of Evansville will be on site to answer your pruning questions and to give demonstrations. Directions: From Main Street (Hwy 14) turn north on Cemetery Road. After the cemetery, turn east onto Golf Air.

#2

344 Garfield Avenue

Kyle and Doreen McDonald: Kyle is so enthusiastic about gardening, he bought the lot next door when the opportunity presented itself. See what you can do on a typical city lot. Kyle describes his garden as "Eclectic Cottage." Kyle gardens on a budget taking advantage of end of season sales to see what survives. Enjoy lemonade on the patio. Directions: From Madison Street (59/213), turn west on Garfield.

#3

260 Garfield

Cheryl and Tim Mani: Cheryl and Tim enjoy creating and adding an interesting variety of garden art to their city lot landscape. They enjoy combining vegetables and annuals. Anything goes as they engage in "dirt therapy!" Original garden art available for sale. Portion of proceeds to the education foundation. Gourmet refreshments will be served in style. Directions: From Madison Street (59/213), turn west on Garfield

#4

132 W Main Street

Peter and Cindy Diedrich: This lovely historic home on Main Street features a shaded yard. Peter and Cindy have revitalized the garden and added a variety of shade plants. Formecology will be on site to answer your pruning questions and give demonstrations. Directions: From Madison Street (59/213) turn west on Main Street. Park on Second Street or First Street

#5

4304 N Cornfield Drive

Heidi Carvin: This two acre garden features a prairie, extensive hardscaping, perennials, interesting trees and shrubs, a hosta collection and a picket fence enclosed garden with raised beds. Listen to the harp music of Margaret Brigham while relaxing on the deck and patio. Learn about prairie and shade plants. Plantings are placed to attract a variety of birds and provide interesting views from inside as well as outside the house. Directions: Head south on Madison Street (59/213). Turn West on 59 towards Albany. Go about 2 miles. Turn south on Michael Dr off of Hwy 59. Turn left at the intersection of Michael and Lilac.
